Opportunity

Many people have accepted the challenge. They are continuing to learn and discover how rewarding the vending experience can be. We hope you will too, and that you will find ideas and information, in this resource guide, that will help and inspire you to take the time to learn what you can do to change your life. In an ever changing economy and job market, people are beginning to realize that knowledge is power. You may be stuck in a dead-end job and the catch word on your supervisor's lips is downsizing. There's no need to quit your present job while you learn about vending, plan to advance and start your own business. You have a choice. We are continuing to compile information to simplify your vending search.

Become an Entrepreneur

The long cherished notion of getting a job that would provide both long term security and benefits is close to disappearing in the workplace anywhere. It is no surprise that more people today want to do "their own thing". Vending is one of the final frontiers. Since you are considering starting a business, you belong to a large and growing group of people frustrated with their present jobs.

Plan Your Work!

People are happier in their work if they have control over what they do. Happy people are also healthier people, and there is no better time than now to start a change in your life and put yourself in control of your own destiny.

Choose machines that are: reliable, easy to service, easy to locate, caters to the people on location (products that they want), and gives you an outstanding return on your investment.

Vend Trends-Facts and Figures

The name of the game is financial success and Independence!

- A department of commerce study revealed that fewer than 5% of new vending companies fail each month, compared with a 65% failure rate by the Small Business Administration, for independent, new business start up. Vending can be a very profitable business!
- Vending allows a person to invest 10 to 20 hours per month and get a return on money invested 100% to 200% in the first year. This is 10 times what they would get at a bank with a CD or Money Market account.
- Money follows financial independence. Vending allows 95% of start-up to go for machines and product. Your home can be your office.
- 70% of vendors start off on a part time basis, keeping a full time job, and checking their machines and servicing them after work or on weekends. This allows their money to work for them while they keep their present jobs. 85% of them turn to full time vending after two years. Money does allow freedom. We might wish that our economic system operated differently, but it doesn't. Having money or not having it largely controls what we do in our lives. Vending can give you that independence.
- Not only is the greatest growth of vending ahead of us, but also the greatest diversification of vending is yet to come. Here are just a few reasons why Automatic Merchandising is literally exploding.
- The high cost of labour in personal selling activities makes Automatic Vending a more interesting alternative.
- The movement of population to suburban areas, plus the desire for more convenience in location and time of purchase makes vending appealing.
- The trends towards more impulse purchasing by customers will benefit the growth of this industry.

Consider These Vending Options

Amusement, Arcades, ATM Machines, Baseball Cards, Billiards, Bulk Products, Capsules, Car Washes, Cigars, Cigarettes, Coffee, Combo Machines, Condoms, Cosmetics, Cranes, Darts, Games, Gumball, Family Fun Centers, Food, Honor Boxes, Hot Dogs, Juke Boxes, Laundry, Medical Supplies, Parking Meters, Perfume, Personal Products, Pay Phones, Phone Cards, Plush, Popcorn, Postcards, Slots, Snacks, Stamps, Stickers, Tattoos, Toys, Video Games, Vending Carts, Water vending ...and the list goes on!

Here Are A Few Ways To Start Expanding

1. Lease your equipment, whether the machines are new or used. Add one or two vending machines at a time. Build slowly, with good high traffic locations.
2. Purchase established routes (from someone retiring or getting out of the business). The existing vending business will be currently set up with machines on locations, suppliers of products, along with the procedure of filling each type of machine and pricing of the products.
3. Purchase used equipment from other vending operators or distributors. Try it first and see if vending is for you. Research trade magazines, classified ads, or call local distributors for new and used equipment for sale.
